RISH REBELLION LEADERS GIVE UP

Official Press Says Backbone of the Uprising is Broken

BRITISH TAKE 707 PRISONERS

Messengers Sent from Dublin to All Sections Urging Surrender of Revolutionary Forces

Dublin, May 1.—All the leaders of the insurrection have surrendered unconditionally, according to a report current here. It also is reported that the four court districts have been recaptured.

London, May 1.—An official announcement issued last evening concerning the situation in Ireland says:

"Seven hundred and seven prisoners have been taken, including the Countess Markievicz." An official statement issued by the official press bureau regarding the rebellion in Ireland says: "The rebels are surrendering freely. The back of the rebellion has been broken. "Messengers have been sent from the leader of the Dublin rebels to other rebels in Galway, Clare, Wexford, Louth and Dublin counties ordering them to surrender."

Asquith Demands Compulsion. London, May 2.—Premier Asquith announced yesterday afternoon that a bill to be introduced today would be one of general and immediate compulsion.

What Did It Mean? A notice board in a Scottish Kirk once bore, it is said, the following inscription: "This church is built on a rock." A white bean signifies votes of the people for the election of the candidates in gathering the black beans and white beans were used by the ancient Romans for the same purpose. Beans are called "Mark Twain" because we are left in doubt. Mark Twain complimented when we are called an animal. Instead of feeling hurt, let us see what ridicule has brought him to. The highest compliment is about perfect. He is less. Observe the man, for instance, by ridicule, however poor and wicked and true, but it can be destroyed. There is no character. Downer
